

An Internet Scavenger Hunt:

Work to complete as many answers as you can. Ultimately, however, the process is more important than the answers. We want to begin to learn how to find what we're looking for. The one rule I want you to follow is to use Google to find all of the answers, even if you happen to know the answer.

1. Who won the Oscar for Best Actress in 1987? For what movie? Who was the director?
2. What are three major side effects of the cholesterol lowering drug Crestor™? Name two alternatives to Crestor™?
3. Who was the top selling musical artist for 2005?
4. What is the last line of Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address?
5. What was the last movie made by the star of the Buffy the Vampire Slayer television series?
6. Who was the most valuable player in the Super Bowl XX? Did he play on any other Super Bowl teams?
7. What was "Seward's Folly"? Why was it certainly not a "folly"?
8. Who were the original members of the Bee Gees? What was their biggest hit? Find it and play it out loud! (Dance and sing for extra credit)
9. What time is it right now in Mombasa, Kenya?
10. Madonna played Eva Peron, or Evita, in a movie about the Argentinean First Lady. Find a picture of the real Eva Peron and Madonna from the movie and tell me if they look alike.
11. Who is the career leader in World Cup soccer goals?
12. Who was the third man to walk on the moon?
13. How many brothers and sisters does Justin Timberlake have?
14. Who first said, "Don't fire until you see the white's of the eyes?" When and where did he say it?

15. What are the 3 leading causes of death for people under 18?
16. Name three places in the solar system, besides Earth, where you can find H₂O.
17. Who is the newest muppet on the Sesame Street cast? What makes her special?
18. Why is Dan White one of the most famous San Franciscans?
19. What determines whether a food product is “kosher”?
20. During which Chinese dynasty and in what year was the French military leader Joan of Arc born?